Breakfast on Saturday

In compliment to many of the teachers who are soon leaving for summer vacations or summer work, Mrs. W. A. Campbell was a charming hostess on Saturday morning at an eight o'clock breakfast. A delightful little coterie of friends were grouped about the pleasant rooms and enjoyed to the fullest the delicious breakfast so daintily served.

Mrs. Campbell's guests included Miss Gertrude Kellogg, Mrs. Brown, Miss Cornelia Dockstader, Miss Clara Wheeler, Miss Mary Boyer, Miss Wilmyth Case, Miss Mildred Julian, Miss Alberta Platz, Miss Mabel Milligan and cousin, Miss Milligan from California, Miss Ruth Dotson, Miss Edna Dotson, Miss Agnes Hoyt, Miss Partidge, Miss Minnie Lintz, Miss Agnes Dodson, Miss Blanche Payne, Miss Ellen Saunders, Miss Katherine Stites and Miss Zella Jones.

Viewing Saturn and Jupiter.

An evening long to be remembered was that of Friday last when through the courtesy of Dr. V. M. Slipper, the faculty of Emerson school and their friends were invited to spend an evening on Observatory Hill. Most unusual views of both Saturn and Jupiter were obtainable and interspersed with these, were most important data concerning them given by Dr. Slipper. Later the party repaired to the library where the remainder of the evening was given over to looking at views of comets and pictures of the moon.

Home Economics Picnic.

An inauspicious day, but the brave spirits of the home economics department were in no measure dampened for some twenty of them braved the dust and wind and motored out to the reservoir at 11 o'clock Tuesday and enjoyed a sumptuous picnic. Here in a sheltered retreat they enjoyed a social time until four, not neglecting the election of officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Charles Hillebrandt will lead the activities in this department with Mrs. W. A. Campbell acting as vice-chairman.

The program committee will soon be at work presenting an interesting program for next year.

Enjoying the picnic were Mrs. E. H. Wheat, Mrs. Hubert Hill, Mrs. Frank Harrison, Mrs. Willis Brown, Mrs. Grover Hutson, Mrs. R. G. Stevenson, Mrs. Ed Babbitt, Mrs. Charles Hillebrandt, Mrs. M. G. Frouse, Mrs. Richard Cree, Mrs. Seay, Mrs. Dick Connor, Mrs. Bert Cameron, Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Mrs. Charles Isham, Mrs. W. H. Switzer, Mrs. W. A. Campbell, Mrs. Joe Schmidt, Mrs. Sidney Gassman and Mrs. E. C. Slipper.

Julius Aubineau Marries Mesa Girl.

Stealing away from their friends unexpectedly, Miss Bonnie Champagne and Julius Aubineau were married on Saturday night, June 3, in Prescott. They spent several days on their honeymoon in the mile high city and returned to Mesa Wednesday. They will live in the Duffy cottage at 165 North Pasadena avenue.

Mrs. Aubineau is a Mesa girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Champagne, who reside northwest of the city. She graduated from the Mesa high school with the class of 1920, and spent the past term as a student at the Tempe Normal. Mr. Aubineau is a northern Arizona boy, but for the past two years has made Mesa his home, where he is in charge of the local branch of the Union Oil company.—Phoenix Republican.

Julius was a Flagstaff boy during the greater part of his life and his old school mates and friends here extend hearty congratulations.

Cards have been received announcing the graduation of Miss Helen Cecilia Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Tate at St. Mary's Academy, Los Angeles, on June 20, 1922. Miss Tate is a native daughter of Flagstaff.

H. B. Warnock Weds Miss Helen Schwartz

H. B. Warnock, who arrived here about two months ago from Alamogordo, N. M., to accept a position in the hardware department of the Babbitt Bros. Trading Co., of which his brother James is department manager, was married at Holbrook last Friday morning to Miss Helen Schwartz, of Alamogordo. The happy couple will make their home at 806 West Birch street, in the Chas. Heiser house.

Warnock has made many friends since adopting this as his home. His bride is a vivacious, interesting young woman of many accomplishments and will be a welcome addition to the younger social set.

Robert Koch to Wed

Announcement is made of the engagement of Robert I. Koch, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Koch of this city, to Miss Bertha Celeste Renaud of Pierce, Arizona. Miss Renaud is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Renaud, a native Arizonian, and a graduate of St. Mary's Academy in Los Angeles and the University of Arizona at Tucson. She is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of the University of Arizona and one of the best loved girls of the school. Miss Renaud is at present in Flagstaff, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Koch for a few days, having stepped over here on her way east, where she will sojourn until fall, returning to Flagstaff for another visit at that time en route to her home in the southern part of the state.

St. Anthony Graduates Entertained

Tuesday evening will be long remembered by the 13 graduates of St. Anthony's school. They and Rev. Fr. C. Vabre were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Williams at 6 o'clock dinner, given in honor of their oldest son, Clifton, member of the class. Green and gold prevailed in the decorations. Following the dinner came games and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jakle entertained the class Thursday afternoon at a theater party, followed by a delightful luncheon. Friday afternoon, Mrs. Herman Metz and Mrs.
